Dear Sirs,
I have been using your "Golden Fleece Dip" for the cure of scab in sheep during the whole year and I have not seen its equal in these parts.—It is an effectual and rapid cure, it not only destroys the scab in a very short time, but soon produces a new growth of wool.—
I have delayed writing you sooner in order that I might be the better able to judge of the effects of the medicine and to compare it with the remedies used by other sheepfarmers, none of whose flocks are at all so free from scab as mine, although they have been working far more constantly than I, to keep down scab, as regards its cost, it is the most profitable of any I have ever used or know of.
You are at liberty to use this as you may see fit and remain
Dear Sirs,
Yours truly
WILLIAM TUMBELTY.

Wool market down.

HAVAS' AGENCY

London, Oct. 19th

Cities of Limerick and Dublin, and part of both counties continue seriously disturbed, in spite of the intervention of the military. The troops in the island are insufficient to keep order, and reinforcements are being sent to Cork and Dublin, to suppress the movement energetically. Situation is serious, but does not cause Government serious anxiety.

New York 18th.

OBLIGATIONS.

Nothing would be more ungenerous or improper than for the foreign merchants of Buenos Ayres to allow the ratification of the Chilian Treaty and its interchange by both countries to pass unnoticed. It is an event of such surpassing consequence to the land we live in, that no matter what our business or trade may be, we all share in the blessings which it secures, as we should have all participated in the losses and troubles had the country been plunged into a wicked, desperate and useless war, which at one time so seriously threatened us.

To our view foreign, merchants would increase their success and their business and their business did they more identify themselves with the affairs of the country. The days are passed when a man can live here for a few years, make an independence, and return to his native land without knowing as much Spanish as to bid his neighbour the time of day. The foreign merchants in this market now are very different from the old foreign merchant of thirty or forty years ago, and a competition in everything has so sprung up that whether importer or exporter, banker or broker, a man, to hold his own here, requires as much 'savoir faire' as in London, Liverpool, Paris, or N. York.

Although it is not our desire to say that business interests more than affection for the Plate will influence merchants in this matter, still we fear we must admit that the merchant is so tied down to his affairs that his concern for the country and his gains in business are inseperably interwoven.

Every one who thrives and makes money in the land likes it, whilst it is the contrary with those who meet with reverse and losses; we have seen a huxter curse the country and every one in it the other day, simply because he was obliged to keep his shop door closed on Sunday, and whether in higher or lower sphere the prejudices that keep foreigners from identifying themselves more with the country spring from the same kindred source.

The men at the head of the foreign commerce of the Plate have now a very capital opportunity to show their worth, their brains, and their metal. We have come out of a business that has been managed by our Minister of Foreign Affairs with all the ability of a Bismarck or a Gladstone, and we think that foreign merchants should show their appreciation of Dr Irigoyen's great ability by paying to him to Gen. Osborne and to President Roca some great mark of their satisfaction at so happy a termination of the Chilian difficulty.

CENTRAL ARG. RAILWAY

Nothing could more trumpet-tongue proclaim the growing prosperity of this country than the subjoined note of Mr Frank Parish, who, as special representative of the Central Argentine Railway Comp., makes an offer now to the Government to abolish the Government guarantee which was the 'sine qua non' when the Comp. was formed.

Mr Parish's offer is not only fair and reasonable but most flattering to the country, and we hope to see the Minister of Hacienda, Dr Romero, despatch the matter as quickly and as favorably as Governor Rocha did the Bahia Blanca Railway scheme. Mr Parish can return to London then by the next mail and land in Moorgate Street with the same satisfaction as the hero whose motto he may now adopt, 'veni vidi vici.'

Buenos Aires, Sept. 1881.

Exmo. Señor.

I, Frank Parish, resident of London and now temporarily in the Argentine Republic present myself to Y. E, and state:

That the Board of Directors of the Central Argentine Railway, of which I am a member, wishing to terminate the pending question and strained relations between the company and the National Government, which affect the interests of the country and the progress of the railway, commissioned me to make an arrangement with the superior Government, with a view to promote mutual interests.

Y. E. does not ignore the history of this railway, and a single reference to the appended memorandum will evidence on the strength of real and positive facts the steady wish and efforts of the Company to develop in every way the sphere of action of the railway, omitting no sacrifice and never despairing of the country, even in the most precarious circumstances of its sometimes painful ordeals, which deeply affected its interests.

I will refrain from entering into details which would only be a recapitulation of the notes in the Memorandum I have referred to. I will only add that Y.E. may gather an abstract view of the situation of the Company, how the railway that unites the second capital of the Republic to the harbour that only yields precedence in commercial importance to Buenos Ayres, has not been able during fourteen years' existence, with the exception of one twelvemonth, to cover a small annual dividend of 5 per cent, necessitating, year in, year out, the help of the Government guarantee.

Meanwhile the National Government, pressed by special circumstances that have nearly always been protracted, has not been able to comply with its obligation to the Company, and in spite of all its good-will has only been in a condition to advance to the company at irregular intervals partial amounts payments that never constituted at a time the full stipulation of the guarantee, nor were ever handed in opportunity to the company for the payment of its dividend, and in order to facilitate its harassed progress,

Happily the present prosperous condition of the country, the new line of policy adopted and the increase of European capital foster hopes that the Interior provinces will receive a vigorous impulse. But can the Central Argentine Railway Company, in its present situation, rely on the prospects of better results? A mere glance at the following facts will convince Y.E. that, without a settlement of the pending questions with the Government, the Company will be unable for many years to participate in this progress of the country, and much less assist same.

The Company owes the Government £432,000 sterling for advances made on account of the guarantee. This amount must be repaid to the National Treasury with the net proceeds, over 7 per cent on £1,600,000 sterling, which constitute the capital guaranteed by the Government, whilst the company has to divide 'pro rata' this interest on its effective capital of £1,900,000 sterling.

Now, basing calculations on the surplus revenue of last year, supposing that the Company shall continue its progressive maron uninterrupted, and that the country will not be shaken by fresh convulsions which may detain its prosperous advance, it may be inferred that on an average the Company will never be able to dispose of larger means than those that enable it to make an annual disbursement of £30,000 to the Government; it would thus take 21 years to close the guarantee account, or, what amounts to the same, the Company will be limited to a maximum annual dividend of 5½ o|o, and will be incapacitated to raise further capital for the improvement of the line, as nobody will invest capital in an enterprise subject to such an obligation during so protracted a period, and knowing to a certainty that only a certain amount can be disposed of for the payment of the dividend, even in case the new capital would double the returns. In view of these facts, and confiding in the rectitude and patriotism of Y. E's able Government, I have been authorized by the Company to submit to the Nat. Government a proposal to cancel all the credits that burden both, on a just and equitable basis to the Government and to the Company, that the former may reap positive advantages in harmony with the latter.

1. The Company foregoes all rights to the guarantee.

2. The Company cancels all amounts due by the Government on account of guarantee, handing £114,000 in accounts due by the Government and £100,000 cash, making a total of £214,000, equal to £422,000 in twenty one years at 7 p. cent discount per annum.

The equity and justice of the bases I have the honor to propose will not escape the able judgment of Y.E. In the first place the Government is completely and finally freed of an obligation, such as the guarantee, that annually absorbs a considerable amount of the revenue, and it in truth the Company has not to appeal to this resource in the present, nobody can well anticipate that such will continue to be the case, especially after what happened after the year....., when the line yielded an excess over the interest of the guaranteed capital much larger than last year.

Secondly the Government does not concede a mere reduction of the amount of the debt, but simply a discount payable in a sum to-day, equivalent to one twenty-one years hence.

Furthermore through this arrangement, the Company is freed ot all obligation and impediments, and can raise further capital to improve the line and perhaps reach 8 per cent dividends, that would benefit the Government, as shareholders of the Company, by an increase of £10 000 sterl per annum, equal to £210,000 stg. at the end of the 21 years, exclusive of the immense benefits that logically the country must receive with the development of the railway.

Hoping that the Superior Government will comply with the reasonable request of the Company, I have the honor of saluting Y. E. etc.

LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent)

(Concluded)

Sept. 18th.

It will be remembered that in the old days of strikes and Trades Unions, when the workmen combined to stop the 'output' of coal or iron ore, they were vilified by the capitalist class and their organs in the press. Now-a-days the Trades Unions' principles have been adopted by the capitalists and by landowners, who, with the Morning Post and the Beaconsfield Club, are at the bottom of the 'fair trade' movement.

The Trades Unionists, who have just held a conference in London, have dined with the Lord Mayor, and have been petted and praised, in the hope that they would pronounce against what is called 'one-sided' free trade. The hope, however, was singularly and summarily dispelled. The Trades Unionists turned the delegates of the 'Fair Trade' League out of the conference hall, and unanimously moved the previous question when a 'fair trade' motion was proposed. In this they have been supported by a recent meeting of the English Farmers' Alliance as well as by the cute farmers in Aberdeenshire, who formed an association to demand something not unlike the three F.F.'s, and also by an agricultural meeting in Wales and by a meeting of agricultural labourers in the Midland Counties, under the presidency of Mr. Joseph Arch. In fact, although the serious men of the Free Trade party have not yet condescended to enter the lists, and although nothing has been done beyond publishing two or three Cobden Club pamphlets and allowing the new generation rope enough to explain its own fallacies and educate itself in the A. B. C. of exports and imports, the balance of trade, &c., the Protectionist movement, which may be said to have commenced three or four months ago, with the election of Mr. Eckroyd at Preston, has already died a natural death.

Even the French Government has caved-in, finding it had completely mistaken the inarticulate screams of a few newspapers and of some Conservatives in search of a seat for an expression of British opinion. The French Government has suddenly discovered that, after all, it does possess a legal power to prolong the Treaty, and is now feverishly anxious to reopen negotiations, which are to be resumed on the 19th inst. In all probability, the new Treaty with France will be more in the direction of Free Trade than the one now ruling. Only Mr. Parnell, and a few unteachable persons, like Mr. Bentinck or Mr. Newdegate, have now t courage or audacity to openly advocate Protection. As for Mr. Parnell, judging from his last speech at the Irish Land League Convention, wherein he talks of boycotting English goods and protecting Irish industries, he, in short, proposes to do the very thing he can justly blame the selfish 'fair traders' of England for having done in regard to Ireland a century and a-half ago. Sensible men in Ireland are nearly tired of him. declamation of the Irish Convention What in the somewhat tiresome is called 'the abolition of rents,' or the 'abolition of landlordism,' can mean nothing more than the 'nationalisation of the land.' That is a tair and debateable question, entertained even partially by the late John Stuart Mill and by many English politicians of the day, who will work hand in hand with their Irish fellow-countrymen if they will only werk rationally and not assume that a radical change of such a nature can be included in a clause of a 'Land Act,' or other temporary piece of legislative compromise.

A cargo of frozen meat from Australia, of which much was anticipated, on its supposed success and on opening the hatches of the vessel at once wired to Australia, has failed in the market. I am at present unable to say whether the failure was owing to the bad condition of the meat or to the machinations of a ring of London butchers who, unless they can sell it for prime English meat, and at high prices, will prefer not to have it at all. Another cargo has left Australia in one of the Orient line, the Cuzco, on account of 'The Orange Meat Company.'

There is nothing moving, that I can hear of, in Argentine or River Plate schemes in London. However, there is hope surely for any scheme, when we read in the Times article of the 16th inst., and in all the papers, of the floating of the 'Silver Valley' mining scheme, by a Mr. Ledru Rollin Reynolds, aged 29, and, I believe, a son of the late Mr Reynolds, of Reynolds' Newspaper notoriety. Mr. L. R. Reynolds was a clerk in the office of a public company, but, dissatisfied with the unprofitable routine of that occupation, it occurred to him to get the lease of a barren bit of ground in Cornwall, and then to sell that lease to a financial agent, who was simply himself under another name. This financial agent sold the 21 years' lease to the 'Silver Valley Mining Company, he got up himself. The price was £50,000, of which, as usual, £30,000 was to be paid in cash, the rest in shares, &c. The mine—again as usual—was described to be rich in plant and to be full of unworked ore, lead—and anciently, apparently in the time of the Phœnicians, to have realised £138,000. Of course, the mine was worthless, and the plant consisted of an old wheelbarrow not in working order. You will see all about it, and that Mr. L. R. Reynolds is already commencing a term of two years penal servitude with hard labour. But what, perhaps, you will not see, and what, with accustomed delicacy has been studiously kept out of the London papers, are the names of the directors of this wonderful 'Silver Valley' mining concern. The full list is given by the Citizen, a city paper. Amongst the names are those of Sir R. Gethin, Bart., the Hon. Mr Lennox, the Hon. Mr. Lambart, &c. Is not this enough to damn the system of guinea-pig directors? Some of them were already directors of Cornwall mines, and ought to have been able to have smelt old wheelbarrows and a 'plant' of that kind before Mr. L. R. R. positively wheedled them out of three thousand pounds.

Bravos! Iroqnois. Mr. Lorrilard has added the laurels of the St. Leger to his green ribbon of the turf, already won. The Americans have not only taught the Yorkshiremen how to breed horses, but how to lay bets and manage a race financially. The Yorkshiremen were completely sold at Doncaster, and have received an expensive but useful lesson Archer, who rode Iroquois, has just won in one week almost as many races as there are days in the week.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Things in general again looked as cheerful as possible yesterday. The Chilian Senate had passed the Treaty against three votes, and the premium on gold bowed its acknowledgements to the extent of five cents. There is no doubt as to the Deputies passing the Bill also to-day, and Mammon will probably bow another five cents previous to drawing himself up as stiff as ever. The weather was all that a sheepfarmer, a wheatfarmer, or any other man, could desire. There was a fair share of dust, even in the most central streets, which has not been seen for months. It is time for the City Fathers to see after their watering-carts, if they have any.

The Rev. James W. Fleming will preach on Sunday next, at the Flores Chapel of Ease, at 3.30 p.m.

We knew it. The London Standard received by the Galicia says that the object of the interview between the three Emperors is to work back on the Berlin Treaty and substitute for it that of San Stefano of which the late Lord Beaconsfield made such short work when he took the secret treaty between England and Turkey from his pocket and floored the joint diplomacy of Europe. From Washington it is announced that the news of President Garfield's death so excited the populace there that it was feared the prison would be stormed and Guiteau lynched; two field pieces were placed at the door of the prison to frustrate the attempt which, however, was not made.

It rained congratulatory telegrams yesterday on Governor Roach from Tandil and other Southern parts, in consequence of H.E's. agreement with G. S. R. C. to extend the line to Bahia Blanca. It is the grandest thing for the province that any Governor of Buenos Aires has ever achieved.

The Horticultural Society's meeting came off on Wednesday evening and was quite a success. Mr Hamouet presented a magnificent collection of roses, begunias and azaleas for which the highest award was given, 4 points; Da Vicente Peluffo for a splendid group of aralias, 4 points; Basset Bros. for crotons, a splendid collection, 3 points; Da Daniel Gowland for a collection of magnificent roses, 2 points; Da Angel Peluffo for roses and perennials, 2 points; Da A Wilson for roses and ornamental leaf plants, 1 point. At 8 o'clock visitors began to arrive, and amongst them we noticed: The American Minister, General Osborn, Mr and Mrs Parish and family, Mr and Mrs Consul Baker and friends, the Misses Downes, Mr and Mrs Tucker and family, Mr and Mrs Donnan, Mr and Mrs Spanton, Mr Shakery, Mrs Dr Ortiz, Misses Wilson, Del Campo, Torres, Mr Linay and family, Messrs Blanco, Sundblad, Dr Spegazzini, Dr D. A Viola, &c.

Nothing is too much for our sprightly colleague El Diario, who speaks and writes English almost, but not quite, as well as we do Italian. We cut the following from its issue of yesterday:—

"Mr Devotos raout.—Last evening took place a very charming soiree at Mr Devoto's villa, the well known Italian merchant, and distinguished alderman, Mr Del Viso, the lovely fellow, the well looking Minister of the Interior, was the hero of the party. His feet and his hands were extremely observed by the ladies, and the new English Minister was very jealous of him. Mr Alkaine, the 'exelsior fion' broker, muchly complimented for the wonderful cat's hand just introduced by the last steamer of Mr Woodgate, the man of the day on the dock affair."

The forest fires in Michigan, U S, caused the most astounding phenomena we have ever heard of, or anybody else either. When people mistake the sun for the moon, no wonder they think of Mother Shipton. The correspondent of the London Globe says:—

"The terrible drought in Michigan has borne its fruits. There had been no rain for two months, and the forest fires are described as appalling. The flames, accompanied by a hurricane, spared nothing. It is said that from two to five hundred persons were burnt to death, and five thousand or more, nearly all new settlers of limited means, were made homeless. Simultaneously with those forest fires in Michigan, certain meteorological phenomena are reported to have been observed in other places so extraordinary in their character as make the week in which they were witnessed 'noted in history.' We can well believe this. For instance, the needle of the compass remained in any position in which a bystander might place it without reverting to the north. This was at Saratoga. At Massachussets darkness set in at noon, although there were no clouds. The schools, the shops, and the factories were closed. The birds went to roost thinking it was night, while the little insects, under the same impression, came out and chirped. The Millerites, a sect who believe in the near approach of the Millennium, put on their ascension robes, thinking the Last Day had come. Everybody seemed to be under a different impression from everybody else, and people's complexions in Boston resembled saffron, while the grass assumed a bluish hue; or, according to some, the colour of verdegris. But the most terrible effect of the intense heat was that exerted on the sun. The sun in the cloudless sky cast no shadow, and was mistaken for the moon. The heat in Equatorial Africa is known to be somewhat rather intense, but we have never heard that even it has the same marvellous influence on the sun as the American heat has. The Americans, if the newspaper correspondent has not exaggerated matters, may now be congratulated on having had the biggest thing in heat ever experienced."

The Rev. M. P. Ferguson will (D. V.) preach at the Estancia Eudosia, Laguna de los Padres, (Mr Theodoro Petersohn's) on Sunday 30th inst.

Dr. del Viso, Minister of the Interior, meditates a trip to the Gran Chaco during the recess.

There were only two votes in the National Senate on Wednesday against the clause in the New Municipal Bill re-establishing the Lottery in this city.

The Nacional says that Colonel Latorre arrived at Campana yesterday morning and arrived here in the afternoon. There is no doubt about it.

The 'ravissante' Mlle. Gregoire will take her benefit to-morrow night at the Colon Theatre, in the famous La Belle Helene, the first and last time this opera will be given before the departure of the company. On Sunday night Les Mousquetaires au Convent, a splendid 'spartitura'.

The steamer Genova has arrived with 450 Ligurians, and the La France has started from Genoa with 1200 more. Immigration is looking up.

The Boundary Treaty will be exchanged at Santiago to-morrow. Let both countries go in for "a regular burster" of rejoicing and declare next week 'feriado'. A month's fireworks could hardly do justice to such a transcendently happy event.

Brander 'fils' is going too far, and should confine his talents to 'Juegos Florales.' This witty young scamp has perpetrated another hoax, the Press and whole Public being the victims this time. He wired from Montevideo on Tuesday night that the new ironclad Admiral Brown had arrived there, whereas she was not even in sight. Brander, my boy, we fear that your respectable papa spared the rod when you were a youngster, and therefore spoiled you. Be satisfied with your 'Juegos' triumph. The torpedo-launch Maipu has arrived.

We feel much pleasure in welcoming back to the River Plate those highly popular gentlemen Messrs. John and William Samson, who have returned after a seven months' sojourn in Europe. Their hosts of friends are delighted to find them in the best of health.

ON 'CHANGE.

	Oct. 20th
Patacons	25.40
Cedulas A	99½
Cedulas B	96½
National Bank Shares	121½
National Bonds 1863	82

The gold market ruled very weak to-day on the opening news that Mr Smithers' new Bank had begun drawing and had drawn £100,000 sterling, which was taken by the Provincial Bank; all the Chilian clouds being dispelled the market resumes its wonted sunshiney appearance, and confidence, which was so much disturbed, is now completely restored. Gold opened at 25.45 and closed at 25.40; cash sales 8,682 pats. For end of Oct. the sales amounted to 173,270 pats, opening at 25.50 and closing at 25.45, and for Nov. 15th one sale at 25.50. Total gold sales, 276,950 pats.

Cedulas ruled a shade firmer; for cash opening at 99 and closing at 99½. For the end of month they are still weakish, 65,000 sold at 98½.

National Bank Shares reveal the deep designs of the holders, buying one day and letting go the next; the market looks very suspicious, and although many anticipate a heavy fall before the end of the month, it is a most dangerous business to sell short, as they may succeed in making a corner for the end of the month. The cash sales were 421 shares, opening at 122 and closing at 121½. For Oct. 21st the sales reached 8,320 shares, opening at 123 and closing at 121½, and for Nov. 2,550 shares sold, opening at 123 and closing at 122. Thus all along the line the market gave way, because one large Italian holder sold a few hundred. We commend to speculators in National Bank Shares the history of the corner in them on the New York stock exchange, which we give lower down.

In National Bonds one sale to-day of a small lot, 2,500, at 82, which is always an improvement on previous quotations.

It was rumoured on Change that the Bank of England rate was raised to-day to 6 o/o, but this must be mere conjecture, as to the present no telegram has come.

Exchange looks upward; the first operation of the new English Bank of the River Plate has been effected, £100,000 stg., rate reserved; Provincial Bank taker.

The London papers of 21st state that £50,000 were withdrawn from the Bank of England for the R. Plate. We suppose it came by Galicia; the constant shipment of gold to the R. Plate attract notice in London, and some people in Throgmorton-street were heard last month to ask where is the River Plate. They will yet find out.

We note in the Jornal do Comercio, of Rio, that Mr Duffield was to have left Rio last Monday for B. Aires, and the people in that market are far ahead of the merchants here in their appreciations of the services of their bank managers, as a splendid silver dinner service was to be presented to Mr Duffield by the commerce of Rio on the occasion of his leaving to take charge of the English Bank of the River Plate. We never heard of bank managers here getting as much as a silver toothpick from their customers, but suppose that in this as in many other things we are on the mend.

A large failure of a coffee firm in Havre is reported.

Mr John Samson of the well known firm of Lahore and Samson was warmly welcomed on Change on his return from Europe and much felicitated on an event which is the great starting point of every man's success—marriage—Mr Samson reports having seen the Brown at Bahia, which port she left on 13th. Some wretched Brander in Montevideo played a trick on the Port Captain yesterday by telegraphing her arrival on Tuesday night: better to plagiarize an epic any day than send a false telegram.

The sale of some Government land in the far West at $f.5000 per league is reported, Mr Brown of Campana buyer, Mr Todd seller; the land cost the seller a little more than a year ago 10,000 m/c per league.

The sales at the ring were—
For cash 85,682 25.45-40
For Oct. 21st 10,000 25.45
For Oct. 31st 178,270 25.50-45
For Nov. 15th 3,000 25.50
Sales, 276,950.
Cedulas—
For cash A 34,500 99-½
For cash B 5,000 at 96½
For Oct 31st A 56,000 98½
Sales, 104,500.
Nat. Bank Shares—
For cash 421 shares 122-121¾-121-121½
For Oct. 31st 8,320 shares 123-122¾-½-122 to 121½-½
For Nov. 30th 2,550 shares 123-122¾-½-122 to 122½-122
Sales, 11,391.
Nat. Bonds, 1863—
For cash 2,500 at 82
At afterhours there was a sudden run down in Nat. Bank shares and several lots sold at 120 and 120½, but the break did not last long; buyers came forward and a reaction ensued, the shares being at once carried to 123 for the month, at which price they closed.

The sale of 15 Transandine Telegraph shares at 240 fuertes per share is reported.

Cedulas at afterhours ruled weak, 800 sold at 98½, and sellers offering for end of month at 98½ and 99½ for long dates.

Gold rules weak, although they say that the large exchange announced was passed in paper and not in gold.

The sale of 7000 sheep at Tres Arroyos with wool at 28 mpc, 'al corte' is reported; this shows a sharp fall in the price of sheep.

Telegrams from Antwerp to-day are not favorable to wool or tallow.

At 4 o'clock it was announced on Change that the Deputies in the Chilian Congress had ratified the treaty, and that all question between the Governments is now settled for ever.

To-night the Central Office of the Pantelephone will be united with the Colon and many will go to hear the music. Mr Feis leaves in the morning to speak with Pantelephone between Las Flores and the Government House, 214 kilometres.

The Maipu they said on Change arrived to-day, the Brown can't be here for some days as she only left Bahia on 17th; she will not coal at Rio.

The German barque Anne, 475 tons, to W. Pasts and Co, came alongside the Catalinas Mole without tug and is discharging there, to the immense satisfaction of importers; no more lighters etc.

We had the pleasure of a visit from Mr Edwin Furze to-day, and are glad to say he is quite recovered from his recent illness.

Another book is out on the long pending Chilian Question; History of the Straits of Magellan by M. A. Pelliza; we hold it for review.

Messrs Tay & MacLean have chartered the American barkentine H C Buckman, to load hay at Rosario for Rio Janeiro at 24 dollars per bale.

Mr. A. Christophersen was welcomed on Change on his return from Europe; he has arrived in the Pampa. Mr Ruiz, who has arrived from Sta. Fe, Mr Dickson, estanciero, and Mr Allan, of B. Aires Great Southern Railway Telegraph Department, were also welcomed.

In the South Market to-day a small lot of fine new wool to Casoux sold at 95. We heard that 86 has been offered for the wool from Messrs Ocampo's estancia in the North and declined.

Gold at afterhours ruled weak; sellers for end of month at 25.45

80 waggons of produce arrived
Produce in general without variation.
The sales were—
600 ar. borrega wool at 43
430 dos. sheepskins at 22, 23 rls.
Desechos at 16, 19 rls.
Corderos at 20 rls.
300 doz. corderitos at 13, 13½, 14
180 cow hides at 164, 166
Potro hides, 40 at 35, 37
Potrancas at 20, 19
Wheat, candeal, at 125, 160
Flour, 1,000 ar. from rivers, at 26
Maize, morocho, in grain, at 54
Yellow, in grain, at 53

The market opened this morning under the breezy influences of splendid news from Chile; all doubts as to the future are now removed. President Roca received a telegram last night from President Santa Maria, stating that in all probability the Deputies would do to-day what the Senate did yesterday, approve of the treaty, and thus on 22nd both Governments will be ready to exchange treaty. It is to be hoped that the chasque from here will arrive at Santiago on Saturday; he is timed to arrive on that day, but to cross the Andes at present is no child's play, and he may not reach till Sunday, so that we may look for the news on Monday without fail of the treaty being exchanged.

Mr William Samson, the popular agent of the Allan Steam Line, was enveloped in friends when he entered the Bolsa; he was away seven months and had a most agreeable European tour. His first steamer, the Canadian, Standard steamer, will be here in a fortnight.

We have already adverted to the greatest corner ever known to the financial world, which has just terminated in New York. The stock in which the corner was made is called the Hannibal & St. Joseph's Railway in the far West, and the deferred shares in which the corner was made usually sold at about 35 to 45 per 100 pats in Wall Street. We extract from the Times received per Galicia the following, which doubtless will interest speculators here in National Bank Shares:—

"It is said that the venerable Commodore Vanderbilt, once the king of the Wall-street manipulators, gave as his chief advice to his heir William H Vanderbilt, now the head of the N. York Central Railway system, "Sonny, don't sell anything that you haven't got." It was doing this sort of selling for future delivery, and the demand that was thereby created for the stock, that made the 'corner'. The pool seems to have been got up especially to catch some of the big operators, who had been so long successful at similar stock-jobbing that they were caught napping for once. Instances are mentioned where little operators who were enmeshed were let off easily, but the big fellows had to pay handsomely. The bears had been working 'Ot Jo.' when some one conceived the idea of co nering them, and began the operation in 'common' stock. The pool quietly bought up all the available stock on the market and locked it up to await developments. The pool then bought all the contracts for future delivery of this stock they could get. Most of these contracts matured this week, and it is said that they aggregated almost as much as the entire amount of 'common' stock issued by the railway. On Tuesday, when the cornered party began to have suspicion of what was going on, 'St. Jo common' went up to 96; on Wednesday, when they knew what was going on, it jumped to 200, yet even this price of five or six times its usual value could only bring out about 5,000 shares, as the pool kept the rest locked up. The absurdity of the price was shown by the 'Preferred' selling at 115 or 120 when the 'common' went up to 200. The 5,000 shares sold, of which 1,500 brought the top price, is said to have been fully one-half of all the stock held by outside parties, which the pool could not get hold of to lock up before the raid began. When 200 was reached and it was evident that the big operators were tightly 'cornered', the broker for the pool became magnanimous and announced his readiness to settle all 'differences' at that figure, inviting the 'shorts' to step up to his office and balance accounts. Sage is reported on good authority stated above to have accepted the invitation and paid over his $700,000, but, as he declined to be interviewed on the subject, the report could not be exactly verified. James Keene, caught on 15,000 shares, settled with a cheque for $480,000. Benjamin P Carver was reported short 20,000 shares; Addison Cammack, 6,000 shares; H N Smith, 2,500 shares; and A L Hopkins, 500 shares. Jay Gould and W R Travers were also reported short, but for how much could not be accurately ascertained, as they are accustomed to keep their own secrets. The railway has 100,000 shares of common stock issued, and of this the pool got possession of 90,000 shares before the 'cornered' party suspected what was going on."

The death of President Garfield caused such widespread sorrow through England that the Times went into mourning and the London Stock Exchange was closed. The telegram from New York gave the following:—

"New York, Sept. 21st

"The Produce and Cotton Exchanges have resolved to close on Monday next. The New York Stock Exchange has cordially accepted a proposition of the London Exchange to suspend business on both sides of the Atlantic on the day of the funeral. This action has been approved and concurred in by the Exchanges in the principal cities of America."

Our advices from the Chubut colony this morning are as follows received:—

Per Dos Hermanitas we learn that the river Chubut had risen to irrigating level, thus putting an end to the anxiety felt as to the occupation and maintaining of the immigrants. Steps had already been taken to throw two dams across, did the river continue low, and should it again fall below the mark, probably the works would be pushed on. Great anxiety was felt as to the immigrants whose arrival here at the latter end of August was known in the colony, and who had not arrived, as where would know. Indignation was rife as to the want of facilities to send them on to Chubut, and fears were entertained that pressure was brought on them to send them elsewhere, whilst relations and friends were awaiting them. We are assured from there that land is plentiful in the surrounding districts, but no facilities whatever given to settle thereon.

"Decree of 10th inst., published on the 14th, declares the concession to Col. G E Church, of the Madeira and Mamore Railway, expired and void.

"A bill reported favorably to the Rio de Janeiro Legislature proposes to grant 6 o/o guarantee of interest to 1,000:000$ to be employed in prolonging the Araruama Railway to Santa Maria Magdalena.

"The Province of Rio Grande do Sul has contracted with Messrs Spalding & Taafe for the construction of a railway from Iaquary to the Theotonia colony.

"An Argentine paper says that an offer, guaranteed by Baring Bros., of London, has been made to the Argentine Government to continue the railway del Este from Monte Caseros to Garruchos, on the West side of the river Uruguay, above the latitude of the Brazilian town of S. Borja. A line would also be made from the port of Colon, in Entre Rios, to Concordia, to meet the Este Railway. The proponents ask 7 o/o guarantee. This line, if constructed, would probably divert much Rio Grande production to it, but would also greatly promote the development of the Brazilian Missiones.

"The Committee of the Rio de Janeiro Legislature has reported in favor of selling or leasing the Cantagallo Railway and of granting 6 o/o guarantee on 20,000:000$ on condition of constructing extensions."

Y han sido recientemente practicadas espresamente para vender, por cuya razon son tan bajas, llamando en consecuencia la atencion de los especuladores pichincheros, y demas que andan a la pesca de las oportunidades para efectuar compras de ocasion.

El barrio Sud toma cada dia mayor incremento, las mas importantes obras nacionales se haran indudablemente en este costado, y el valor de todas estas propiedades se acrecentara rapidamente. El Campo de Mayo esta ya decidido se haga en la quinta de Diehl. La Escuela de Artes y Oficios en la calle de Brasil y Matheu, el Hospital Frances, el Parque, depositos, cuarteles y muchos otros importantes edificios entre los cuales estaran dos ministerios nacionales, todas estas obras que dentro de breve tiempo adornaran la Capital haran quintuplicar el valor de la propiedad territorial, y es ya notorio el aumento de estos valores.

No hay, pues, mejor caja de ahorros ni Banco que de mejores interes, que emplear las economias en terrenos centricos que, como estos, poseen gas, tramways, aguas corrientes, empedrados, etc.

El Viernes 4 de Noviembre
A las 2 en punto de la darte

Venderemos por el precio que exceda de la pequeña base que se le ha fijado y por orden terminante de su dueño.

Seis leguas proximamente de campo que como hemos dicho dista solo 11 leguas del pueblo de Bahia Blanca y cual esta en la Provincia de Buenos Aires, lindando con la zanja del Fuerte Argentino lo cual lo garantee mucho mas que a cualquiera otro y viniendo a quedar su ubicacion entre este Fuerte y Puan.

Al campo lo cruzan dos caudalosos arroyos el Corta Pie y el Pelicura poseyendo a mas varias lagunas, por cuya razon, y por la escelencia de sus pastos tiernos, recenocidos como los mejores de aquel parage, resolvieron el general Garcia y Coronel Donovan en la expedicion, establecer alli las grandes invernadas del ejercito.

Muy inmediata a este campo esta la concesion Plaza Montero pero es lindero con el gran establecimiento del Sr Ernesto Tornquist, que como se sabe esta todo poblado con edificios y hacendas y totalmente alambrado.

A mas todos los linderos que mas abajo se mencionan, tienen tambien, sin escepcion sus estancias pobladas y trabajando.

A este campo lo cruza el telegrafo y el camino real que va a Bahia Blanca, Guamini y Puan, pasando por su centro la galera que va a Carhue.

Para probar elocuentemente que este es el mejor campo que se ha puesto hasta hoy en venta, basta decir que el Sr Ataliva Roca lo adquirio hacen 3 años, cuando recien se abrio la primera suscricion por cuya razon el num. de orded del titulo es el 12 lo que evidencia que el Sr Roca fue el primero de los que eligieron por los escelentes informes que tuvo.

Hay otra razon para garantir que ningun campo se encuentra en mejores condiciones de venta que este, y el que, como se sabe, el Gobierno Nacional piensa hacer funcionar el puerto de Bahia Blanca muy pronto y en esta virtud que muy pronto tambien funcionar dos saladeros que se construyen alli.

Los titulos son de primer orden.

Los linderos y su ubicacion los siguientes. Por su fondo al S.O. con el lote num 47 de D A Gonzalez Chaves; por el N. O. con el lote 35 de L A Burgos; por el S. E. con el num 38 del mismo Gonzalez Chaves.

El lote 36 y el 36 prima [que es el que esta en venta] linda por el N. O. con la zania de la linea de frontera, teniendo por consiguiente la ventaja de tener un frente de defensa impenetrable.

NOTA—Podemos garantir que no hay expropiacion del Ferro Carril del Sud y que el Gobierno de la Provincia se acaba de arreglar con la empresa, para concluir la linea del Azul hasta Bahia Blanca a principio del año 1884.

The Galicia's Mails.

EUROPE IN MOURNING FOR GARFIELD.

London, Sept. 23rd.

Throughout the passage of the train which bore the remains of President Garfield from Elberon to Washington there was every manifestation of sympathy and sorrow. Outside the station at Washington an immense crowd had assembled to witness the removal of the cask et to the Capitol, which was effected amidst perfect silence. Mrs Garfield did not go thither, but drove to the house of Mr MacVeagh where she will remain a few days. At the Capitol a double file of Senators and Deputies escorted the body to the Rotunda, where it will lie in state, the public being admitted both day and night. Meetings of condolence are being held everywhere, and in many States on Monday next the day of the funeral will be preserved by fasting and prayer. Business will be entirely suspended throughout the States on that day.

President Arthur formally took the oath of office in the Marble Room at the Capitol at noon yesterday, in the presence of the Cabinet and a number of other persons. He afterwards read an Address assuming the trust imposed by the Constitution, and declaring that he relied for aid on the Divine guidance and the patriotism of the American people.

In Paris a largely attended meeting of American citizens, in response to the invitation of the U. States Minister, was held to express their deep sorrow at the loss which their country had sustained.

The Stock Markets, yesterday, after exhibiting an upward movement left off at a general decline, Consols, however, showed improvement, the price for money being ⅛ higher, at 99⅛ ⅜, and 1-16 for the account, at 99 5-16 7-16. In Home Railways, the Scotch issues were exceptionally heavy, while Great Northern 'A' and Great Eastern showed marked improvement. Foreign Government Securities closed with a flat tendency, Egyptian, Spanish, and Turkish being sold, but Mexican Bonds were favourably affected. Gold to the value of £35,000 was sent into the Bank, and £50,000 withdrawn for South America. The proportion of Reserve to Liabilities, in the Bank Return, improved 1½, to 41⅜.

RECEPTION OF THE NEWS F PRESIDENT GARFIELD'S DEATH IN LONDON.

The conspicuous Second Edition posters of the morning papers, and the half-mast flags displayed by houses directly or indirectly connected with American interests, told the melancholy story of the President's death to City-going men yesterday morning; and, although the issue had been foreseen and even expected during the two previous days, the intelligence, coming thus pronounced, produced a painful shock. There was a blank expression of countenance, and a sudden hush of conversation, resumed by-and-by in bated breath, eloquent of deep feelings aroused. Then came an eagerness to learn further details than the characteristic announcement received at the office of the American Exchange :—' September 20th. (6.41 a.m.).—The struggle over. Death the victor. Garfield dead.' At the resorts in London where men congregate the subject monopolised all conversation, and it is needless to add that sympathy with the bereaved family and nation was universal. This found expression in a variety of ways. The American Minister received a telegraphic intimation a little before six o'clock in the morning, stating tersely that the President had died at eleven o'clock on the previous night (which is four o'clock in the morning by English time), but fuller information was soon forthcoming. The Embassies and Government Offices were at once advised accordingly. The secretaries at the American Legation were fully occupied during the day in replying to the messages, and attending to the enquiries and expressions of sympathy from all quarters and all classes of Englishmen. Mr Lowell, having been apprised on Monday, by a telegram, of the Prince of Wales's anxiety and wish to be kept informed of all that occurred, sent a message early yesterday morning to his Royal Highness at Abergeldie, and simultaneously the tidings were telegraphed to the Queen at Balmoral. Her Majesty replied by the following message received in the afternoon : 'Balmoral, September 20th.—From the Queen to Mr Lowell, United States Minister, London.—It is with deep regret that I and my children have learned the sad, but not unexpected, news of the fatal termination of the sufferings of the President. His loss is a great misfortune.' The American Minister telegraphed as an acknowledgement the words—'I beg to convey to Your Majesty my thanks for your gracious message, which I shall at once communicate to Longbranch.' A Reuter's telegram from that place, however, shows that her Majesty herself telegraphed her condolence with Mrs Garfield in the message : 'Words cannot express the deep sympathy I feel with you at this terrible moment, May God support and comfort you as He alone can.' From the Prince of Wales came the telegram : 'From the Prince of Wales, Abergeldie, to Mr Lowell, United States Minister.—It is with deep sorrow that we learn that the President has passed away. The Princess and myself beg you to offer our sincere condolence to Mrs Garfield.' To this message Mr Lowell replied : 'I beg to convey to your Royal Highnesses my thanks for your kind message, and to say that I shall have the honour of conveying the expressions of your sympathy to Mrs Garfield.' The American Minister himself telegraphed his sympathy to the late President's widow ; and the Lord Mayor lost no time in conveying by cablegram the sentiments of the citizens.

Amongst other telegrams despatched to the country was one to the Premier at Hawarden, and one to the Foreign Minister at Walmer Castle. Earl Granville telegraphed thus to the American Minister stating the action he had taken :—'Deeply grieved to receive your telegram, I have sent the following message direct to Secretary of State, Washington : 'I request you to assure Mrs Garfield and the Government of the United States of the grief with which her Majesty's Government have received the announcement of the President's death. Parliament is not sitting, and is thus prevented from giving formal expression to the sorrow and sympathy universally felt in this country—a feeling which has been deepened by a long suspense, and by the courage, dignity, and patience shown by the illustrious sufferer.'

Amongst those who called at the American Embassy were the Turkish Ambassador, the German Ambassador, the Swedish Charge d'Affaires, the Italian Charge d'Affaires, the Belgian Secretary of Legation, the Netherlands Minister, the French Charge d'Affaires and the Secretary of the Embassy, the Russian Charge d'Affaires, the Hon. Lionel Sackville West (the newly appointed Minister to America) the Earl and Countess of Derby, Sir F and Lady Pollock, and Bishop Simpson (of Philadelphia].

On the day of his death Mr. Garfield endeavoured to dictate a message to the Union Army of Cumberland, his comrades in the Battle of Chickamauga, now guarding his body. He, however, fell into a stupor before completing it.

It is also related that on the day when, for the first time after being shot, he signed his name, he wrote above it, 'Strangulatus pro Republica.'

Mrs Garfield now bears herself bravely, calmly and with dignity in public. But in the family circle she appears utterly prostrated. She is also suffering from keen anxiety as to the health of her son James, who is stricken with malarial fever. The health of Mr Garfield's aged mother is now breaking. She says she does not care to live any longer, and her death is regarded as certain to occur soon.

The comfort of the family, in a pecuniary sense, is now assured. The fund raised on their behalf has now reached 252,409 dollars, and it shows no signs of stopping at that. Most of the subscriptions are large, but a popular movement is also being set on foot for gathering in small subscriptions. It appears that Mr. Garfield recently bought 6000 shares of mining stock, which are now worth five times what he paid for them, and will return, at their present rate, annually a sum equal to their purchase money.

As the political situation becomes clearer Mr Arthur's position appears more embarrassing. Mr. Windom is almost certain to be superseded, and Mr Conkling is said to be desirous of taking his place as a Secretary of the Treasury. This, it is thought, would involve the retirement of Mr James, he being also from the State of New York, even were he willing to remain in the new Cabinet, which is doubtful. Senator Jones, of Nevada, with whom Mr. Arthur is staying at Washington, is a very close friend of the President, and he is said to be intent on securing for himself the Secretaryship of the Interior.

It is safe to predict that before the end of the year the members of the present Cabinet, with, possibly, the exception of Mr. Lincoln, the Secretary for War, will be replaced by new men. It would not be safe in existing circumstances to rely on the Senate supporting the policy, or confirming their nominees for office.

An immediate extra Session of Congress is now expected. As regards the Cabinet, whilst it is assumed that Mr Arthur will endeavour to retain it intact as it now stands until Congress meets in the ordinary way, gossip is already current as to the composition of its successor.

New York, Sept. 22nd

The newspapers still contain little but articles about the late President—indeed, so much is the public interest centred in this all-absorbing theme that they might well contain nothing else.

Foreign expressions of sympathy continue to come in abundantly, and in every variety of form. This is peculiarly grateful to the American people, who are sensitive as to foreign criticism, 'The World Sorrows with Us,' and 'Imperial Sympathy' are the heading of leading articles in the Herald.

The Times thus concludes one of its leaders :—'Never before since the Republic gained a place among the nations of the earth has any incident in our national life been so intelligently, tenderly, and appreciatively commented on by other nations as the event which has filled this land with sorrow.'

At Wall-street the proposal to close the London Stock Exchange is accepted as an unprecedented mark of esteem, eminently creditable to the brotherly feeling of our English kinsmen.

I regret to say that the autopsy is likely to give rise to an unpleasant controversy. The profession generally maintain that it has vindicated the treatment perscribed by Mr Garfield's medical attendants, and they rally loyally about the surgeons and physicians who dealt with the case. Laymen, however, are utterly lost in wonder at what they consider was the total misconception of the nature of the wound formed by the doctors.

They ignore the fact that it was practically impossible to discriminate between the long channel made by the burrowing pus and the track made at first by the bullet itself. It was also of little consequence what produced the channel. The main element in the case was that it existed, and that it gave forth decomposing purulent discharges. From the contorted nature of the passage these could neither be drained away nor disinfected. They were absorbed into the blood, and thus produced pyæmia—a disease fatal in nearly every instance.

That the late President was skilfully treated for pyæmia is considered to be proved by the fact that he was kept alive so long after the septic condition of the blood was developed. From the nature of his hurt it is unanimously concluded that his case was beyond the powers and resources of Science. Under any treatment he must have inevitably died. The only respect in which one treatment might have had different results from another, it is alleged by doctors, would have been seen in the difference in the time during which life is prolonged.

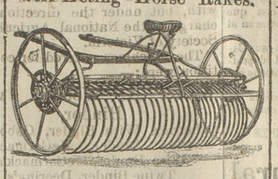
HOWARD'S CELEBRATED MACHINES

Howards' Self-Acting Horse Rakes.



The above were the first Self-acting Horse Rakes which secured public favour, and owing to their extraordinary success various attempts have been made to imitate them, but J. & F. HOWARD'S simple brake principle—Patented—is so instantaneous in action, that all the contrivances introduced by others for effecting the same object are in comparison, but complicated expedients.

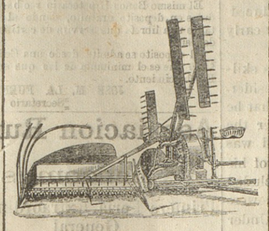
Howard's New Patent Simplex Mower.



J. & F. HOWARD'S Simplex Mower is one of the lightest machines ever produced. It is from its construction remarkably strong, and has been found to be capable not only of cutting the heaviest crops, but of standing the roughest usage. J. & F. HOWARD'S patented principle of open gearing is adopted. This gearing, among other advantages, is light in weight, of great strength, and not liable, as other gearing, to get clogged with the cut grass, there being no cogs to catch it, and no shield therefore is required.

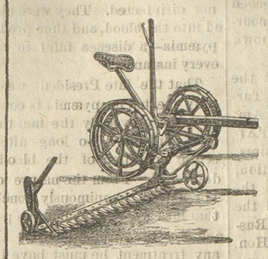
Howard's New Patent Simplex Reaper.



J. & F. HOWARD'S Simplex Reaper is in every way constructed to meet the demand for a light, but strong Reaper. It has a large travelling wheel, and having the fewest possible wearing parts, its value, especially where repairs are difficult to execute, can hardly be overstated. The experience of several harvests with large numbers of these Machines, both at home and abroad, and the distinguished place they have obtained in public trial fields, have fully demonstrated their superiority.

English Master—Mr P Harnett.

The School is strictly and purposely limited to children of such age, in order that they may be totally separated from the grown boys, and may have all the advantages of minute attention which their tender years require.

The children at St. Mary's are under the special care of the matron, and the rector takes charge of their religious instruction.

ROUGHING IT IN THE COLONIES.—There can be no doubt that a man has to put up with many little inconveniences when he settles in a new country; some of them arising from 'the necessity of things,' whilst others are the result of his own want of knowledge or foresight. However, if he can secure pure water and good bread he will manage to get along tolerably well. Thanks to the advance of chemical science, this last desideratum is not so difficult to obtain as in times past, for with a good supply of BORWICK'S BAKING POWDER, even Robinson Crusoe himself might have produced the whitest and most palatable of bread, to say nothing of cakes and pastry ad libitum, and would doubtless have ended by opening a pastry-cook's shop upon his desert island. NOTA BENE.—Don't forget to ask your storekeeper to put up a good supply of this valuable article with your groceries. In packets, 1d, and 2d, boxes, 6d. and 1s. each.
